

Dynamic Presentations: Speaking with Greater Impact

Overview

Learn to create and deliver dynamic, high-impact presentations with greater confidence and conviction. You'll learn how to design an audience-focused presentation, connect to listeners, deliver a clear and compelling message, and move others to understanding and action. With many on-camera exercises and practice giving real presentations, you'll leave the workshop knowing exactly how to present with greater confidence, credibility, and audience connection.

This workshop is for anyone who presents in formal or informal settings.

Options

- 2 day class with 7 participants
- Accelerated 1 day class with 5 participants
- 2-facilitator option for larger groups

Benefits for You

- Increase your comfort and confidence when you present
- Increase your ability to get your messages across and persuade others
- Get specific feedback on how you come across to your audience
- Identify and practice specific changes so you come across with more confidence, credibility, and connection with your audience

Workshop Content

This workshop includes lecture, discussion, and practice on-camera with individual coaching and immediate viewing for accelerated learning. Participants will also be coached delivering a real business presentation.

Topics covered:

- How to speak more dynamically, using voice, body language, and energy to convey enthusiasm, confidence, and conviction
- Techniques for managing nervousness
- How to create audience-centered presentations that drive home a clear message and lead an audience to take action
- Slide design basics and how to use slides effectively
- How to recover from mistakes & going blank
- How to handle questions & tough audiences